Man Sentenced To 10 Years For Violating Probation

Bryan, TX – Terrance Bernard Henry, 25, was sentenced to 10 years in prison today for violating his probation. Henry was placed on probation in 2010 after he pled guilty to three counts of delivery of marijuana and one count of delivery of PCP. Henry sold the drugs to an undercover police officer.

In June of 2013, Henry was arrested for possessing 13 ounces of high grade marijuana.

He was pulled over by Texas DPS as he was returning from purchasing marijuana in Cypress. Trooper John Hunter found multiple bags of hydroponic marijuana, a digital scale, and plastic bags for resale in Henry's vehicle. Prosecutors also proved that Henry had continued to smoke marijuana while he was on probation.

Judge Travis Bryan revoked Henry's probation and sentenced Henry
